Reports by Officers

- Police Chief Tony West: Chief West reported an overdose on S. Lafayette, a domestic battery arrest on S. Vine Street, and a couple of ordinance violations. John inquired about when Noah Riedle would be on his own. Chief West said it will be a little while. The county will have new one's ride with someone for a year.
- Director of Public Works: Matt Presswood reported they were almost done with the leaf vac when the water pump went out. They will run it in the spring to pick up whatever is left. They also trimmed 10-11 trees. Still waiting to hear back from J.A. Shroyer if they will honor the bid submitted earlier. If they will not Matt is leaning toward rebidding.
- Treasurers Report: Dee gave the treasurers report.
- EDBP Report: Dee reported there was not much at the meeting. Markey on the Hill is still working on what to do with their electrical problems. January will be grant review.

New Business: Paula sent the FY24 draft audit to all the council members to review. The final audit will be sent in January.

The contract for the copier is up for renewal. After some discussion they will let Paula get what she wants.

Old Business: None

Other Business: The Christmas Party will be on December 20th at noon. Sexual Harassment papers are due to Paula by December 31st.
